President. It shall be the duty of the President to preside over the annual State Leadership Conference, over other state conferences, and over the meetings of the State Executive Board. The President shall call an annual State

Leadership Conference. The President, with the Specialist, shall appoint all committees and shall serve as an ex officio member of these committees.

The President shall be one of the delegates to the National Leadership Conference. The President, upon invitation to participate, shall be the official representative of the organization.

The President shall regularly correspond with the State Executive Board members and work closely with the Specialist.

Section B.

Vice-President-at-Large. The Vice-President-at-Large shall assist in statewide chapter promotion and development.

Section C.

Vice-Presidents. It shall be the duty of the Vice-Presidents, acting under the direction of the President, to look after the welfare of Virginia FBLA and especially the regions they represent.

Section D.

Secretary-Treasurer. The Secretary-Treasurer shall perform the duties common to such an office, such as keeping an accurate record of the sessions of the State Leadership Conferences and of the meetings of the state Executive Board. The Secretary-Treasurer shall make annual financial reports at the State Leadership Conferences and such other supplementary reports as may be directed by the State Executive Board. The Secretary-Treasurer shall perform such other duties as directed by the President.

Section F.

Reporter. The Reporter shall correspond with all local FBLA chapters to encourage them to submit articles to the official Virginia FBLA newsletter and social media accounts. The Reporter shall send information concerning the Virginia FBLA chapter to the state and national official publications and social media accounts.

Section G.

Parliamentarian. The Parliamentarian shall be the underclassman who makes the highest score on the state parliamentary procedure written test who submits an official state officer application. The parliamentarian will be announced at the State Leadership Conference. The Parliamentarian shall be responsible for advising the President concerning the orderly conduct of business according to the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

Article IX. Finances

Section A.

The finances of the Virginia Chapter, Future Business Leaders of America shall be handled in the following manner:

1. Organizational monies are maintained at the state agency identified in the Virginia Department of Education Memorandum of Agreement and are managed through that facility's finance office in conjunction with the Specialist.
2. The Specialist will follow the state agency's regulations for procurement and payment.
3. Expenditures are initiated by the Specialist and approved and processed by the agency's Department of Finance.
4. A detailed record of income and expenditures will be maintained at the agency by an individual other than the Specialist, with monthly financial statements sent to the FBLA State Office.
5. The financial records of Virginia FBLA shall be audited according to the agency's procedures.

6. The Specialist shall be bonded for the amount of monies paid to Virginia FBLA.

Article X. Nominations for State and National Offices

Section A.

Nominations for State Officers shall be made as follows:

1. Each local chapter must submit credentials of candidates for office from its chapter to the State Office prior to the annual State Leadership Conference by a date to be established annually. Each local chapter shall elect candidates to run for office by a two-thirds vote of the membership of the local chapter.
2. The State Office shall review all candidates' credentials to determine eligibility and schedule an interview with the Executive Board prior to the State Leadership Conference. At the State Leadership Conference, the State Office and officers shall conduct a briefing session for approved office candidates prior to campaigning.
3. No candidate shall be considered for office who is not present at the State Leadership Conference at the time of the briefing session.
4. Voting shall be done by ballot by official voting delegates.
5. If no candidates are nominated for a state office, the Executive Board may appoint a qualified member to fill the office.
6. A candidate must hold or have held an elective office in their local or regional FBLA Chapter.
7. A candidate must follow the guidelines outlined in the Virginia FBLA State Officer Candidate Guide and abide by all regulations set forth in the State Leadership Conference announcement.

Section D.

Nominations for National Officers shall be made as follows:

1. A candidate for national office must have the endorsement of their local and state FBLA chapters and be recommended by their chapter adviser.
2. A candidate for national office may not also seek the office of state president to be served concurrently.
3. A candidate must file an official application with the Specialist three weeks prior to the FBLA Winter Executive Board Meeting. The candidate and their adviser must be present at this meeting. An exception to this would be a candidate for National Parliamentarian. A National Parliamentarian candidate must file an application to the State Specialist three weeks following the State Leadership Conference or by the national candidate deadline (whichever comes first). The candidate and adviser must be available for an interview if required. Virginia FBLA is allowed one national officer candidate; this individual must be approved by the Executive Board.
4. A candidate must have at least one full school year remaining while they are in office.
5. A candidate must hold or have held an elective office in their local, regional, or state FBLA chapter or a comparable office in an organization on the Approved List of National Activities released by the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

Article XI. Regions

Section A.

Virginia FBLA shall be organized into geographical regions as nearly equal as possible.

Section B.

Each region shall be governed by the state bylaws and national constitution and shall have its own officers, adviser, and director. The adviser is the local adviser of the regional president. The director is appointed by the State Chairman and Specialist.

The Executive Board of each region shall meet in the fall to plan the program for the year. Committee assignments shall be made at that time. The regional president is a Vice-President of Virginia FBLA.

Section C.

The purposes of the regions are:

1. to give additional opportunities for leadership development above the local chapter level.
2. to give opportunities for participation in FBLA activities and events beyond the local chapter level.
3. to provide for an orderly and approved selection of participants at the state level.

Section D.

Each region has responsibility for

1. promotion of new chapters
2. fall planning workshop for local chapters in the region
3. annual conferences for chapters in the region
4. development of effective public relations programs for local chapters
5. leadership training
6. improvement of local chapter activities
7. development of close relationship between business and FBLA

Article XII. Amendments

Section A.

Proposed amendments to the Virginia FBLA bylaws shall be submitted to the State Executive Board in writing by authorized representatives of regional or local chapters. These proposed amendments shall be reviewed by the State Executive Board at its annual winter meeting. Those approved shall be submitted with recommendations to the delegates at the annual State Leadership Conference. The State Executive Board may originate and submit amendments of its own. Amendments may be adopted, or revisions made in the bylaws at any State Leadership Conference by a two-thirds vote of the official voting delegates.
